Description

Aston Court Farm is a desirable smallholding extending to approximately 34.16 acres (13.82 ha), offering a rare combination of spacious residential accommodation, quality pastureland, equestrian infrastructure, and traditional rural features, all set in a peaceful and scenic part of north-west Worcestershire.

At the heart of the property is a well-proportioned four-bedroom detached bungalow, positioned to enjoy views over the surrounding land. The accommodation includes one large sitting room, a separate lounge with adjoining dining room, a bright and functional kitchen, four bedrooms (one with en-suite), a family bathroom, utility room, and cloakroom. Both the lounge and sitting room benefit from fireplaces. While well maintained, the bungalow offers scope for updating to meet modern tastes.

Please note: the property is subject to an Agricultural Occupancy Condition (AOC) restricting occupancy to someone currently or previously employed in agriculture or forestry, or their dependants.

Adjacent to the bungalow are a double garage and additional single garage, providing secure storage and parking. The wider holding includes two stable blocks – the front stable block has eight stables plus one foaling box – the rear stable block comprises seven stables plus tack room. Both have mains electricity and water. boxes, offering excellent facilities for equestrian use, hobby farming, or alternative uses (subject to planning).

The land, extending to approximately 33.64 acres (13.61 ha), comprises gently rolling pasture divided into manageable paddocks and is classified as a mix of Grade II and Grade III – suited for grazing, hay production, or other agricultural purposes. A natural stream runs along the Eastern boundary, enhancing the setting and offering a useful water source for stock. To the rear of the bungalow lies a traditional orchard, planted with a variety of mature fruit trees and contributing to the property's character and biodiversity.
