POPHLEY BARN, STOKENCHURCH, BUCKINGHAMSHIRE

AGRICULTURAL BUILDING & LAND OFF CITY ROAD IN STOKENCHURCH, HIGH WYCOMBE, HP14 3EW

A SECLUDED SMALLHOLDING WITH A STORAGE BARN IDEAL FOR EQUESTRIAN CONVERSION

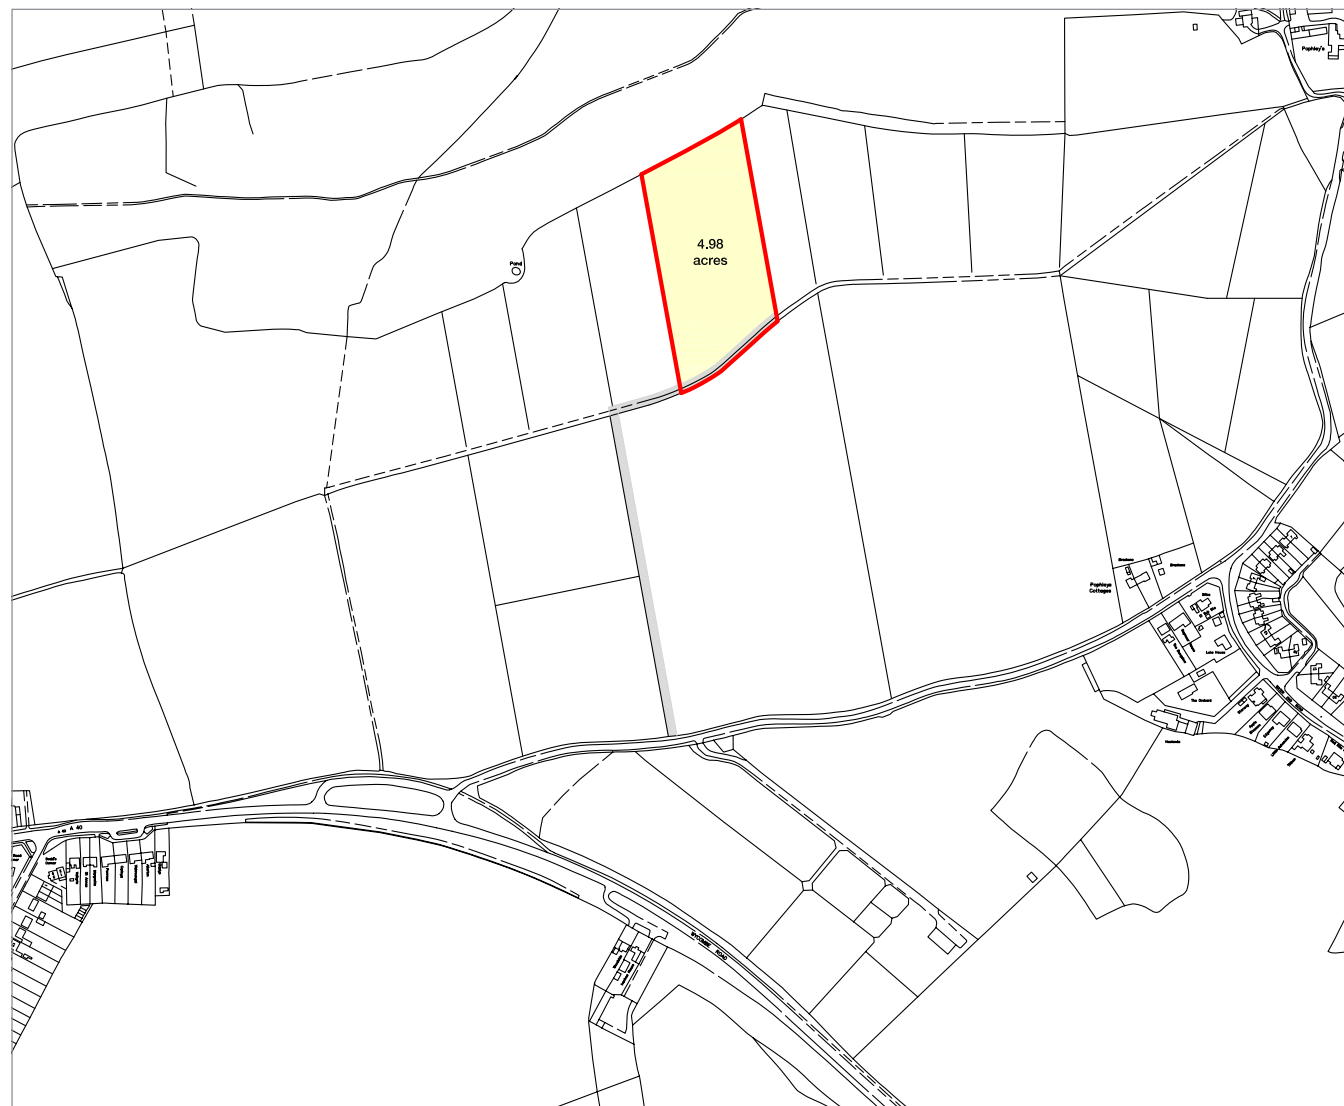

This is a fantastic opportunity for you to own 5 acres of land with a storage barn. The land is flat and is enclosed by a combination of stock-proof fencing and established hedgerow, providing secure boundaries and privacy.

Several fruit trees have been planted on the land and a 6m x 4.5m storage barn has been built in the north-western corner, making this site an ideal smallholding for those wanting a piece of the “good life” in a sought-after area.

Situated on the Buckinghamshire / Oxfordshire border, the land lies on the edge of Stokenchurch, a charming village nestled in the Chiltern Hills. This large commuter village has a range of day-to-day amenities and has its own junction on the M40, providing convenient access to the cities of London, Oxford and Birmingham.

The land could also be ideal for those with an equestrian interest, as several parcels of land nearby have been granted permission for stables and other associated equine facilities.

Surrounding by stunning countryside and close to good amenities, this land offers you a perfect blend of rural tranquillity and modern convenience.

NO OVERAGE

There is no overage or clawback on this land – rare in today's land market.

LOCAL DEVELOPMENT

Numerous other parcels of land within the Chiltern Hills National Landscape and the Green Belt have been granted a change of use or planning for a variety of uses including; polytunnels, agricultural buildings and stables.

Furthermore, the land opposite the entrance to the site at Maplefield Farm was granted a Certificate of Lawfulness for a mobile home as a permanent dwelling in August 2020 (Planning Ref. 20/06057/CLE).

Then in February 2021 the land was granted planning permission to replace this with a 3-bed detached bungalow (Planning Ref. 20/08188/FUL).

The land is fully enclosed by a mixture of mature hedgerow and stock-proof fencing.

LAND VALUES

Pasture land prices in the region are 14% higher than the average as land values rose again last year, despite numerous challenges in the local market & global economy. This once again shows the inherent resilience of agricultural land as a tangible asset.

With a wide range of potential uses, agricultural land remains an attractive investment for a diverse range of buyers. This is supported by the fact that, in the past 5 years, land values have risen by 31%, outperforming the FTSE 100, UK property prices and interest from savings in the bank.

These rises are driven by historically low levels of land availability, as demand continues to outstrip supply.

Numerous parcels of land nearby have been granted a change of use or planning for a variety of uses.

The land includes a number of fruit trees.

RECREATION

The land is surrounded by Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty, making it an ideal base for walkers and nature lovers, with miles of scenic trails and woodland nearby.

A footpath, which has been fenced and hedged off, runs along the southern boundary of the land. This footpath runs to the heart of Stokenchurch village as well as a number of other walking routes.

In turn, the Chiltern Way can be easily reached. This long-distance circular route takes you through a variety of pretty villages and beautiful countryside.

EQUESTRIAN

The local area is well-regarded for its strong equestrian community, with excellent riding routes, livery yards, and facilities nearby—making it an ideal setting for horse enthusiasts.

The land also uniquely benefits from its proximity to a long-distance bridleway, easily accessed from the footpath on the southern boundary. This picturesque route leads from Pophleys Farm through Crowell Wood to a larger network of bridleways.
