Location

The Land is located on the south eastern fringes of the village of Llanychaer and has frontage onto the B4313 Fishguard to Narberth road.

Llanychaer is a small rural village and parish in the farming community of Cwm Gwaun, Pembrokeshire, Wales, a locality steeped in history, legend and tradition. The area is favoured by walkers and cyclists, drawn to the “perfect little tucked away landscape wonder”, close to Britain’s only Coastal National Park and the Preseli Mountains, where the Gwaun river rises.

The nearest town is Fishguard, just 2 miles (3.2 km) distant, with A road and rail transport links and daily ferry to Ireland. It is known for hosting annual international music events and food festivals, having its own theatre, primary and secondary schools. There is a wide selection of dining out options available, with quality restaurants, budget cafés and welcoming village pubs in the vicinity.

The North Pembrokeshire Coastline at Aberbach, Dinas is within 3 miles or so and also close by are the other well known sandy beaches and coves at Pwllgwaelod, Cwm-yr-Eglwys, Aberfforest, Aber Rhigian, Cwm, The Parrog Newport, Newport Sands, The Parrog Goodwick, Pwllcrochan, Abermawr, Aberbach, Abercastle, Aberfelin and Porthgain.

There are attractive walks of one to twelve miles in length which you can start from Llanychaer without ever getting in the car. Along the riverbank, up the hills or along the valley, it is a walker's paradise, and the Pembrokeshire Coastal Path and spectacular Preseli Hills are only a short drive away. Pony trekking and hacking facilities are also available.

The County and Market Town of Haverfordwest is some 15 miles or so south and has the benefit of an excellent Shopping Centre together with an extensive range of amenities and facilities including Secondary and Primary Schools, Churches, Chapels, Banks, Building Societies, Hotels, Restaurants, Public Houses, Cafes, Take-Away's, a Post Office, Library, Supermarkets, a Leisure Centre, a Further Education College, The County Council Offices and The County Hospital at Withybush. A scenic road takes you in half an hour to Narberth just the other side of the A40, a small town with many interesting features and independent shops.

There are good road links from Fishguard along the Main A40 to Haverfordwest and Carmarthen and the M4 to Cardiff and London as well as good rail links from both Fishguard and Haverfordwest to Carmarthen, Cardiff, London Paddington and the rest of the UK.
